SummerFest is a two day downtown event with the street closure being on Saturday, July 8, 2017. It is a street festival including sidewalk sales, street vendors, activities throughout the day including watermelon and ice cream eating, dance performances and this year a juggler who will be on stilts. A fun family event that brings people into the downtown and creates economic vitality.

Specific location of event:

The Saturday activities will take place on Cedar Street between 3rd and 6th with additional closures on 4th and Front Street – see map.

Please attach a daily Schedule of Event(s) tentatively planned for each activity and location, if applicable.
