Section 6.04.010 Jurisdiction.

It is declared to be the policy of the mayor and council that the city manager, or his designee, shall have jurisdiction for the purpose of regulating dogs, cats, livestock, wild animals or exotic pets within the corporate limits of the city and preventing, abating and removing nuisances or annoyances and offensive matters created by the keeping or maintaining of such livestock, wild animals or exotic pets. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.020 Cruelty to Animals.

A. No owner shall fail to provide his animals with sufficient, good and wholesome food and water, proper shelter and protection from the weather and veterinary care when needed to prevent suffering, and humane care and treatment. No person shall beat, cruelly ill-treat, torment, overload, overwork, tease or otherwise abuse or molest any animal or cause or permit any dogfight, cockfight, bullfight, horse tripping or other combat between animals.

B. Abandonment of any animal is considered cruelty. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.030 Maiming or Poisoning Animals.

No person shall willfully kill, maim or disfigure any animal except as affirmatively provided in this Code, or administer poison or cause to be ingested, any foreign object to any such animal, or expose any poisonous substance with the intent that it shall be taken by any such animal except pests of public health importance. This section does not limit the actions of a police officer or Animal Control Officer when the officer determines the existence of a public safety danger. This section also does not limit a person's right to reasonably protect him or herself from a possible animal attack. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.040 Carcasses to be Removed from City.

It shall be the duty of every owner of any animal which shall in any manner come to its death within the city, to immediately remove the body or carcass of the animal and dispose of in a legal manner. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.050 Animals in Heat.

Every female dog or cat in heat shall be confined in a building or secure enclosure in such a manner that the female dog or cat cannot have contact with another animal except for planned breeding. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.060 Animals at Large.

A. It is unlawful for an owner to allow his animal to be at large upon property neither owned nor occupied by the owners.

B. Animals must be kept on a leash or under control at all times when the animals are upon any property neither owned nor occupied by the owner. An animal not on a leash or under control will be an animal at large and its owner will be subject to the provisions of 6.05.120 of the Rawlins City Code.

C. No animal shall be a nuisance.

D. Citizens using the pedestrian/bike trail and during city sponsored activities shall keep their pets on a leash and clean up after their pets.

E. Dogs, except medical assist dogs, will not be permitted to Music in the Park or other City sponsored activities wherein the city has provided public notice at least one week prior to the event by publication in the local newspaper and signage at the event.

(Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)(Ord. 09-2007, Amended, 09/04/2007)

Section 6.04.070 Animals – Nuisance and Vicious Animals.

A. Nuisance Animals: It is a violation for any person to keep or harbor any nuisance animal. The testimony of an animal control officer or police officer based upon personal observation is competent evidence upon the issue of whether an animal has disturbed the tranquility or peace of any neighborhood or person. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon proper complaint and conviction shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

B. Vicious Animals: It is a violation for any person to keep or harbor any animal within the jurisdiction of the City which is a vicious animal. The testimony of an animal control officer or police officer based upon personal observation is competent evidence upon the issue of whether an animal is vicious. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon proper complaint and conviction shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

i. Conditions for maintenance of vicious animal post-conviction. If a person owns/keeps an animal that has been convicted one (1) time of a vicious dog offense and that person wishes to continue to own/keep said animal, the following conditions must be met, and applicable fees must be paid:

a. The dog must be immediately spayed/neutered and proof of completion of the procedure must be provided. Proof shall consist of a spay/neuter certificate from a licensed veterinary practice and/or other reasonable confirmation acquired directly from said veterinary practice.

b. The dog must have a microchip permanently implanted under the skin and the microchip must be scanned by an animal control officer to confirm its placement in the dog. The permanent, individual identification number shall be entered into the animal's permanent record with animal control.

c. The dog shall be photographed from multiple angles by an animal control officer at the time of microchip scanning and the photos shall be entered into the animal's permanent record with animal control.

d. When outside, the animal must be on an adequate leash and the leash must be in the hand of a person physically capable of controlling the dog.

e. For one (1) year post-conviction, if the animal is allowed to spend any time outside off-leash the dog must be contained in a chain link kennel situated on a concrete pad. Said kennel will have a latching gate that a dog would be unable to open. Said kennel shall have a roof of chain link material. Said kennel shall be in good repair and may be inspected annually by an animal control officer.

f. For one (1) year post-conviction, the owner/keeper of the dog shall maintain current contact information on file with animal control.

g. For one (1) year post-conviction, the owner/keeper shall secure a liability insurance policy in the amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) that will cover injury, damages and death caused by the vicious dog. A copy of the policy shall be submitted to animal control. It shall be provided in the policy that it is known that the dog has been convicted of being a vicious dog and there shall be no exclusion for damages, injury or death caused by the dog.

h. Upon completion of requirements B(i)a. through B(i)g. of this Section, the owner/keeper shall reimburse the City for the animal's room and board at the Shelter and shall pay a "vicious dog fee" of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) prior to the animal's release to the owner/keeper.

i. Failure to comply with the above terms shall result in the forfeiture of the animal.

ii. Penalties and Disposal order.

a. In the interest of the health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of the City, the municipal judge may order that an animal which has been adjudged vicious be surrendered to the City. Upon failure of the owner to comply with such an order within twenty-four (24) hours after rendition, the animal control officer shall take such animal into custody. In carrying out a written order signed by the municipal judge, the animal control officer may go upon any property of the owner, keeper, or harbinger within the City jurisdiction.

b. In the event that a person has been convicted of harboring a single animal for the third (3rd) or subsequent time of being vicious, the Court shall order that animal to be surrendered to the City and subsequently destroyed. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97) (Ord. No. 10-2022, Amended, 10/15/22)

Section 6.04.080 Public Health.

It is the responsibility of owners and property occupants to keep their property properly controlled of animal feces so as not to present a potential danger or nuisance to the public health. If the city, or county health officer determines that a situation exists which is potentially dangerous to the public health, a violation notice may be issued. Upon conviction, the owner or property occupant shall be punished as provided in 6.05.130 of this Code. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.090 Failure to license.

It is unlawful for any person to own any animal over six months old for which a current license has not been obtained when required by this Code, provided that cagebirds, aquatic or amphibian animals and rodents need not be licensed. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.100 Breaking into the pound.

It is unlawful to break into the Animal Control Center, or turn loose or otherwise release any animal impounded therein, or to hinder, obstruct or prevent the Animal Control Officer from impounding any animal liable to be impounded. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.110 Destructive Animal.

Any person owning, keeping or having possession of any animal, who allows the animal to damage, destroy, mutilate, ravage or deface any property or animal, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon proper complaint and conviction shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon the conviction of a violation of this Section the Court may, following a hearing in which evidence must be produced to show that the individual has repeatedly kept animals which have viciously attacked other animals or livestock, forthwith revoke the owners privilege to own any animal within the City limits of Rawlins. Any individual who owns an animal after having their privilege to do so revoked, will be guilty of a misdemeanor. Further, following a conviction of a violation of this section, if it appears to the Court that the animal is still living, the Court may, in addition to punishment of the owner, order the animal control officer to forthwith cause such animal or dog to be humanely destroyed. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97; Ord. No. 09-02, Amended, 9/3/02) (Ord. 6.04.110, Amended, 09/13/2002)

Section 6.04.120 Hunting prohibited.

It is unlawful for any person, other than a law enforcement officer actively engaged in the performance of their duty, to hunt, shoot or kill by any means any wildlife or other game animal as defined by the laws of the state within the jurisdictional limits of the city. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.130 Killing or mistreating animals.

Any person, other than a law enforcement officer actively engaged in the performance of his duty, who kills or causes to be killed, any animal which has been registered and licensed as provided by this title, without the consent of the owner or possessor thereof, or deprives a registered animal of its collar, or puts a registered tag on the collar of any animal not registered, is guilty of a misdemeanor. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.140 Prohibition against using impounded or abandoned animals for research purposes.

No animal abandoned and in the custody of the animal control shelter shall be released or used or sold or otherwise donated for research purposes. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.150 Injured animals.

Any person who injures an animal as a result of an accident with a motor vehicle shall stop and render assistance to the animal as may be necessary and shall further immediately report such accident and injury to the animal to the police. Failure to stop and render assistance and to immediately call the police is a misdemeanor. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.160 New residents - compliance.

A new resident to the City of Rawlins will be allowed thirty (30) days after residency to comply with licensing requirements of this title. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.04.170 Animals prohibited in the Municipal Cemetery.

It is unlawful for any person to allow any animal he or she owns or is controlling to ambulate on the grounds of the Rawlins Municipal Cemetery. This prohibition shall not apply to animals being used by handicapped persons to enable them physical access to the cemetery or to animals which are a bona fide part of a funeral procession. Any funeral procession shall have approval of the Cemetery Division prior to bringing animals into the Cemetery. (Ord. No. 10b-00, Adopted 10/17/00)(6.04.170, Added, 10/17/2000)

Section 6.04.180 Feeding wild animals prohibited-Exceptions-Penalty.

A. It is unlawful for any person to knowingly or intentionally provide supplemental feed to the following wild animals and fowl: deer, antelope, elk, moose, turkeys, ducks, geese, pigeons, coyotes, bears, wolves, foxes, raccoons, and skunks.

B. As used in this section, the term “supplemental feed” means human food including garbage, domestic pet food including pelleted forage feed and hay, salt and mineral supplements, grain, birdseed and other food sources; but does not include incidental food sources such as lawns and gardens.

C. Exceptions. A person engaged in any of the following activities is not subject to liabilities under this section:

1. A person engaged in the normal feeding of livestock;
2. A person pursuing an agricultural purpose on agricultural land as defined by Wyoming State Statute 39-13-101(a) (iii);
3. A person engaged in the practice of raising crops and crop aftermath, including hay, alfalfa and grains, produced, harvested, stored, or fed to domestic livestock in accordance with normal agricultural practices;
4. A person engaged in the cultivation of a lawn or garden;
5. A person engaged in bird feeding; and
6. Any health department employee, law enforcement officer, or state or federal game official acting within the scope of his or her official duties.

D. Penalty. Violation of this section shall be punishable by a fine of forty-five dollars for the first conviction, ninety dollars and for a second conviction, and a must appear after the second within a twelve-month period.

E. The ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication. (Ord. No. 09B -2011, 10/4/11)

Each record shall show the name and address of the person issued a license, the number of the license and tag, the type, sex, breed and color of the animal, the date issued, the fee paid, the date of expiration of the rabies certificate. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.05.120 Impoundment generally.

It is the duty of Animal Control Officers and Police Officers to take and impound dogs and other animals running at large, whether licensed or unlicensed, and to place such animals in the animal shelter. If a dog or cat is licensed, the Animal Control Officer shall attempt to notify the owner. If a licensed dog or cat is not reclaimed by the owner within five (5) days of actual notification, the dog or cat shall be placed for adoption or humanely destroyed. If the owner cannot be notified a licensed dog or cat shall be kept at the animal shelter for a period of five (5) days before being placed for adoption or humanely destroyed. An unlicensed dog or cat shall be detained in the animal shelter for five (5) days from impoundment before it is placed for adoption or humanely destroyed unless it is reclaimed by the owner and licensed or purchased for accrued fines and charges, including license fees by a new owner. When in pursuit of an animal running at large, Animal Control Officers may enter unfenced private property exclusive of buildings and take the animal into possession for impoundment. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.05.130 Enforcement and Penalties.

If there is probable cause that a section of this code has been violated, the animal control officer or police officer may issue to the owner of the violating animal a citation. Animal control officers may not arrest individuals for violations of this chapter. Citations shall be processed in the Municipal Court according to the same process that is utilized for citations.

Any person convicted of violating any provision of this Code is subject to the provisions of Title 1 of the Rawlins Municipal Code. If a person is convicted of violating Section 6.04.020, or a similar ordinance or statute from another jurisdiction or state the animal license may be revoked and animals confiscated. No new animal licenses or adoptions may be issued to such a person for a period of one year after probation or revocation for any animal offense related to cruelty. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.05.140 Reports.

The Animal Control Officer will assign each impounded animal a number which is to be recorded, along with available information about the animal, date and place of impoundment, date of release or other disposition, name of the owner if known, whether reclaimed or adopted; if reclaimed, by whom, and if adopted, the price and the buyer. For each animal reclaimed or adopted, a duplicate receipt will be made with the animal's number on it. The animal control officer will pay over to the city treasurer all moneys received by him/her. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.05.150 Disposition of infected or injured animals.

Any impounded animal which is suffering from any serious disease, or is maimed and suffering from injury will be humanely destroyed before the impoundment period has elapsed, subject to the provisions of 6.06 regarding rabies. Any animal in need of veterinary care shall be released to the care of the veterinarian upon written or verbal request of the owner, if such owner can be found. The owner will be responsible for all fees incurred. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Chapter 6.06

RABIES CONTROL

Sections:

6.06.010 Duties of Animal Control Officer when animal bites.

Section 6.06.010 Duties of Animal Control Officer when animal bites.

It is the duty of the animal control officer when a notice is given him that an animal has bitten a person, to take the animal into custody and notify the owner, if known, and notify the appropriate health officials. The animal may be immediately euthanatized or with proof of current rabies vaccination, will be impounded or isolated for a period of ten (10) days, provided that the owner may request in writing that the animal be released to the custody of a licensed veterinarian or boarding kennel at the owner's expense. If, after the end of the ten-day period the animal exhibits no symptoms of rabies, the animal may be returned to the owner by the veterinarian. If impounded in the animal shelter, it will be returned to the owner by the Animal Control Officer upon payment of all accrued charges. If the owner has not been found, the animal shall be disposed of after the ten (10) days. In either case, the appropriate health officials will be notified of the animal's condition at the end of the ten (10) days.

No person, other than a licensed veterinarian or law enforcement official in the exercise of his or her duty, shall kill any animal suspected of being rabid, until after the animal has been quarantined as provided and the diagnosis of rabies has been made by a licensed veterinarian. When the owner requests euthanasia or a veterinarian diagnoses rabies in an animal quarantined, then the animal shall be humanely destroyed and the head of such animal sent to a laboratory for pathological examination and confirmation of the diagnosis. When the suspected animal is so vicious and/or wild that it cannot be captured and the police officer or animal control officer reasonably believes that capture is unlikely, the animal may be killed with gunshot not aimed at the head of the animal. When dead, the animal's head is to be severed from its body and the head sent to the state laboratory for examination. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

KENNELS AND BREEDERS

Sections:

- 6.08.010 Licensing - Generally.
- 6.08.020 Licensing - Minimum standards.
- 6.08.030 Secure enclosures.
- 6.08.040 Food and shelter.
- 6.08.050 Space Requirement.

Section 6.08.010 Licensing - Generally.

A person maintaining a kennel who owns more than four (4) dogs and/or more than four (4) cats which are over six (6) months of age except for the purposes of conducting a bonafide dog or cat show for public attendance and appreciation, must be licensed as a kennel or breeder and must purchase a kennel or breeder license. Proof of current rabies vaccination must be presented for each dog or cat. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.08.020 Licensing - Minimum standards.

All kennels, as defined in this chapter, shall in addition to the other requirements of this title, comply with the minimum standards of Sections 6.08.030 through 6.08.050. Failure to meet these standards shall be grounds to deny or revoke the kennel license and confiscation of all animals.

All breeders, as defined in this chapter, shall comply with the standards of Sections 6.08.030 through 6.08.050. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.08.030 Secure enclosures.

Secure enclosures must be provided which allow adequate protection against weather extremes. All kennel buildings must be appropriately humane. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.08.040 Food and shelter.

All animal quarters and runs are to be kept clean, dry and in sanitary condition. All food and water shall be free from contamination, and of sufficient quantity and nutritive value to meet the normal daily requirements for the conditions and size of the animal. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.08.050 Space Requirement.

Each animal shall have sufficient space to stand up, lie down and turn around without touching the sides or tops of runs. Runs shall provide an adequate exercise area and protection from the weather. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

- 6.12.080 Effective Date.

Section 6.12.010 Impounded animals - Disposition.

An impounded animal remaining in the city pound for over five (5) days, without being claimed by the owner shall become the property of the city and shall then be available for adoption. Animals surrendered by the owner because of viciousness or bad temperament, feral cats, and other animals which are reasonably determined by the animal control officer to be unadoptable may be euthanatized upon receipt of an order signed by the city manager or his designee. When any animal is euthanatized after being surrendered by the owner because of viciousness or bad temperament, or when any animal which is euthanatized is reasonably suspected of having bitten a person, it shall be tested for rabies. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.12.020 Impounded animals - Fees and charges.

Any animal impounded under authority of this title shall be released to the owner thereof upon payment to the animal control officer of fees set by resolution of the City Council as per Title 1 of this code. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)
(Ord. 08a-2008, Amended, 08/19/2008)

Section 6.12.030 Surrendered animals - Disposition.

A surrendered animal shall be available for immediate adoption and shall be kept at the pound a minimum of five (5) days for possible adoption unless determined by the animal control officer to be unadoptable, in which case the animal may be euthanatized upon receipt of an order signed by the city manager or his designee. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.12.040 Adoption - Generally.

Adoption of any animal shall be by a person deemed by the animal control officer to be a responsible and suitable owner, who will agree to comply with the provisions of this chapter and all amendments thereto; provided that no animal shall be released until fees defined under section 6.12.050 have been paid. Adoption of a dog or cat is conditional until the animal is altered as provided below in Section 6.12.060. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.12.050 Adoption - fees - Dogs and cats.

A dog or cat impounded under authority of this title and available for adoption as provided in this chapter shall be released to the adopter upon payment of adoption fees as set by resolution of the City Council as per Title 1 of this code. The Chief of Police may temporarily reduce or waive the payment of adoption fees in those instances when the number of dogs and/or cats impounded are at or near the capacity of the city shelter. No household will be allowed to adopt any animals which would cause the household to exceed four (4) dogs and/or four (4) cats. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97) (Ord. 08a-2008, Amended, 08/19/2008) (Ord 3-2022, Amended, 3/22/2022)

Section 6.12.060 Alteration of adopted dogs and cats.

Any dog or cat adopted from the animal shelter shall be altered within fifteen (15) days of adoption, or as soon thereafter as the animal is old enough to be altered in the opinion of a licensed veterinarian. By adoption of an animal, the adopter agrees to provide evidence of alteration to any animal control officer upon demand. Any person who has adopted a dog or cat who fails, neglects, or refuses to have the animal altered within the time allowed, or who fails, neglects, or refuses to provide evidence of alteration to an animal control officer upon demand, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than two hundred fifty ($250.00) dollars. The animal control officer shall remove from the custody of the adopter any animal which is not altered within the time allowed. Upon removal, the animal shall be immediately available for adoption and shall be treated as a surrendered animal. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.12.070 Repealed.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)

Section 6.12.080 Effective Date.

The effective date of this ordinance is July 1, 1997. (Ord. No. 4-97, Enacted, 04/15/97)
